H. G. Woodruff attended the annual banquet of the Northern Bankers' association at Hale's tavern, Wells River, last evening.

Rev. J. Wesley MacCallum, who lectured in this city Tuesday night, gave the same lecture on Meeting at Granite-ville last night and was greeted with a crowded house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gessard arrived in this city last night from Milford, N. H., and will reside here. Mr. Gessard was formerly employed as a carrier at Rizz Brothers' shed.

P. F. McCarthy returned last night from business visits in Stony Creek, Conn., and East Longmeadow, Mass., where he went in the interests of the quarry workers' union.

Members of Vincitie club going to Montpelier to-night on the invitation of Apollo club are asked to take the 6:45 car. A special car will bring the party back after the whist match.

Charles Johnson, who has been staying at his home in this city for the past two weeks, left last night for Salida, Col., where he is working. He was accompanied as far as Montreal by Mrs.
Johnson, who will visit friends there for a few days.

The regular meeting of the Young People's association of the Presbyterian church will be held Thursday evening at 7:30. The paper will be given by John Robertson. It is to be hoped there will be a large attendance, as business of importance is to come before the meeting.

No election of officers for the Barre Golf club was held last night at the annual meeting in the city council room, and that work was left for an adjourned meeting, to be held next Wednesday night. The old officers reported last night, showing the club to be in good condition, with all bills for current expenses paid and the note on the clubhouse reduced to $145.

The Philadelphia Item, under date of November 2, quotes: "William Lawrence shines in his latest rural play, 'Uncle Dave Holcomb,' which had its first Philadelphia appearance at the Grand opera house last night. The play is about all that could be desired in the realm of rural drama, and the plot is different from many plays of its type. The scenery was natural and the entire cast in capable hands. Noteworthy features were the 'harvest quartet,' the town band and the village choir, while the organ recital, as rendered by Phoebe, one of the villagers, was a knockout. Mr. Lawrence shows to better advantage as 'Uncle Dave' in his present play than he did for years as 'Uncle Josh' in 'The Old Homestead.' Those who like a good, clean rural play should not overlook Lawrence at the Grand this week." Mr.
Lawrence and his excellent company will appear at the opera house to-night.
